CASE STUDY – PEOPLE OF THE RIVER: DIGITAL SQ'ÉWLETS

Developing Cultural Protocols – Working with the Institution

12:00 PM – 1:00 PM (Over Lunch)
SFU GCA

People of the River: Digital Sq'ewlets (www.digitalsqewlets.ca) is a rich, multi-media First Nations-focused virtual museum and interactive website collaboratively developed by Sq'ewlets, Stó:lō Nation, SFU, UBC and others. As part of the Festival, Project Team-members David Schaepe (Sto:lo Nation) and Kate Hennessy (SFU) will report on the community driven process and protocols and principles behind the development of this newly launched site and installation at the Reach Gallery Museum Abbotsford.

COLLABORATION AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Pedagogies and Worldviews

1:30 PM – 4:30 PM, SFU GCA

A session that addresses Indigenous methodologies in art and artistic practice. Why do we create art? Where do art, artists, and artistic practices reside within our cultures/communities/societies?

RED PATCH

Staged Reading with Talk Back

1:00 PM – 2:30 PM, Roundhouse

A Hardline Production in partnership with the Talking Stick Festival.

Set in both Canada and the battlefields of France, REDPATCH is a historical drama that focuses on a young Métis soldier from the Nuuchah-nulth nation of Vancouver Island who volunteers to fight for Canada in the First World War.

WITNESSES CALLED

4:30 PM – 4:45 PM

MOONLODGE

Opening Night

8:00 PM, BMO Theatre Centre

Written by Margo Kane

Directed by Corey Payette

Starring Paula-Jean Prudat

Produced by Urban Ink in association with Arts Club Theatre and the Talking Stick Festival.

Agnes is a girl who was removed from her home by Child Welfare government services, and grows up in a series of foster homes. Popular media depicting Aboriginal people both fascinate and disgust Agnes. In the 1960s, she joins many others hitchhiking across America, and in that journey, she discovers the authentic voice inside her that had been silenced, but never lost. Limited complimentary tickets available. Book early @ boxoffice@fullcircle.ca

2SPIRIT REBELLION

10:00 PM - Late, The Odyssey

2 spirit rebellion: Glitz, glam, lashes, wigs! San Francisco's Brush Arbor Gurlz (BAGz) transcend gender through a performance based on prayer, faith and the power of words. They share the bill with Vancouver's own, Quanah Style. A celebration of the strength of two-spirit people held together by traditions.

SATURDAY, FEB 18, 2017

HONOURING PARTNERSHIPS

10:00 AM - 1:00 PM, SFU GCA
